

hp4p

Healthy places for people

Agenda: Tuesday 28 March

09:00	Registration
09:30	Welcome and the importance of good quality homes	Dr Pete Bonfield, OBE, CEO BRE Dr Charles Alessi, Dementia Lead, Public Health England
09:35	Keynote: Housing and Social healthcare policy: the importance of home based solutions to the health economy and the need for joining up health and housing systems at the community level.	Lord Best, House of Lords
10:00	Health at Home: Overview and evidence challenge. Looking at Integrated housing interventions which tackle poor or unsuitable housing which increasing independence at home for older people.	Rachael Docking, Senior Evidence Manager, Centre for Ageing Better
10:25	Housing and Dementia: Aspirational solutions to delivering better health through better homes. Sharing good practice on the practical aspects of delivering better homes from around the UK and highlighting opportunities to make a difference to people's lives.	Sue Garwood, Dementia Lead, Housing LIN
10:50	The front line community healthcare perspective: Overview of the home based problems for delivering community healthcare in Hertfordshire	Rachel Howard and Jackie Mason, Hertfordshire Community NHS Trust
11:15	Q&A
11:25	Refreshment Break
11:45	Don't forget the Customers: What housing developers and landlords need to understand about aspirations and needs	Martin Wheatley, Director, Martin Wheatley Strategic Advice
12:10	The cost of poor housing evidence: A review of current Housing and health research on reducing NHS costs though housing interventions and adaptation	Helen Garrett, Principal Consultant, BRE

Follow us on twitter @BRE_Conf and join the conversation using #HP4P17

hp4p

Healthy places for people

12:35	Case study of an innovative integrated housing and health scheme, using health funding to improve housing performance and provide affordable warmth	Nigel Banks, Sustainability Director, Keepmoat
13:00	Q&A
13:10	Networking Lunch
14:10	Addressing housing and healthy inequalities	Merron Simpson, Director, NHS Alliance
14:35	Warmth on Prescription programme	John Kolm-Murray, Energy Strategy & Advice Manager, Islington Council
14:50	Developing a housing and health strategy to enable the elderly to stay well and independent in their home for longer: There is a need to move to a radically different health, care and housing model for the elderly with a range of long-term conditions and disabilities including cognitive impairments. This sessions begins to map out what the home solution might look like and how it might be delivered.	Merron Simpson, Director, NHS Alliance Bill Halsall, Partner, Halsall Lloyd Partnership and David Kelly, Director of BRE Innovation Parks Network Dr Deborah Pullen OBE, Director of Research, BRE
16:00	Q&A
16:10	Closing address	Dr Charles Alessi, Dementia Lead, Public Health England
16:15	Close

Follow us on twitter @BRE_Conf and join the conversation using #HP4P17